In any adventure activity, there is an element of risk involved. Risks in undertaking this activity includes, illness as a result of adverse sea conditions, risk of drowning, injury from sea creatures and risk of hypothermia.

Snorkelling and swimming can be a strenuous physical activity and may increase the health and safety risk for persons suffering from any medical condition. For example stress from sudden exposure to cold water, panic or strenuous activity can aggravate medical conditions such as heart disease and may result in cardiac arrest/death)

The staff and management of the Blackcat Group Ltd take all steps to identify and minimise potential dangers. However, you must follow our instructions AND use the safety equipment provided at all times. Adults accompanying any person under the age of 18years must ensure that the underage person follows our instructions at all times.

You must release or indemnify Blackcat Group Ltd and our staff against and liability we incur to anyone else, resulting from you failure to follow instructions or the failure of any person accompanying under the age of 18years to follow our instructions.

WARNING: Under New Zealand law it is extremely unlikely that you will be able to sue anyone if you are injured. In addition, New Zealand’s accident compensation scheme provided only limited assistance for visitors to New Zealand who are injured. We strongly recommend that all visitors to New Zealand have full insurance covering any injury they might suffer, including medical treatment cover, before undertaking this activity.

EXCLUSIONS: To the extent permitted by law, all our liability for damage to your property, disruption to travel plan, or mental injury is excluded. This exclusion is subject to any rights or remedies you may have under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993.

Please list any medical conditions or other information we need to know to include your safety in this activity. For example: asthma, allergies, heart conditions, epilepsy or pregnancy. You are entitled to access any information we hold about you or to request its correction at any time.
